ABSTRACT

This directory contains instructions for using the advanced notification form designed to help identify migrant interstate children as they move between states. The form contains spaces for entering information about the children in the migrant family including each child's date of birth, last school name, grade level, and Migrant Education Record Transfer System (MSRTS) student identification number. The form also includes space to fill in the family's expected destination and date of arrival. The directory contains the names, addresses, phone and fax numbers of key migrant contact people in the following eastern stream states where the forms are sent: (1) Alabama; (2) Connecticut; (3) Delaware; (4) District of Columbia; (5) Florida; (6) Georgia; (7) Kentucky; (8) Maine; (9) Maryland; (10) Massachusetts; (11) Mississippi; (12) New Hampshire; (13) New Jersey; (14) New York; (15) North Carolina; (16) Pennsylvania; (17) Puerto Rico; (18) Rhode Island; (19) South Carolina; (20) Tennessee; (21) Vermont; (22) Virginia; and (23) West Virginia. The directory provides more extensive information on Georgia, including a county-town index, a map, and areas served by four Migrant Education Agencies. (KS)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USING THE EASTERN STREAM ADVANCE NOTIFICATION FORM

The Advance Notification form is a means of rapidly communicating intended destinations of migrant families. Use of this form is designed to help identify interstate children as they move between states and to avoid missing enrollments.

It is hoped that all Eastern Stream states will utilize this form. To facilitate use, the following explanation is provided. Once a recruiter has collected departure information, it is then forwarded to the state ESANS contact.

For Whom Should Forms Be Sent?

Advance Notification forms should be sent for each family with children, ages 0-22, who is enrolled in your state's migrant education program, and is moving to another state.

Who Should Send the Destination Forms?

It is recommended that Advance Notification forms be sent from central location(s) designated within each state.

Who Should Receive the Forms?

Please see the ESANS manual for specific individuals in each state.

How Should The Forms Be Filled Out?

Section 1:

a) name of the person who should receive the fax
b) receiving telephone number
c) receiving FAX number (mostly for your records)

Section 2: date you send the fax

Section 4:

a) your name
b) your telephone number
c) your FAX number

Section 4:

a) children's last name, first name, middle initial
b) date of birth - please use six (6) digits, i.e., January 2, 1968 would be 01/02/68
c) last school attended by the student
d) current grade
e) MSRTS student identification number

Section 5: where you expect family to arrive in the state being notified

Section 6: estimated date of arrival

Section 7: If you are sending multiple forms, please designate the total number of pages here.

NOTE: PLEASE BE SURE TO COMPLETE THE LINES WRITTEN IN ITALICS.

GEORGIA

The state of Georgia would prefer that all notifications of interstate destinations be directed to the Migrant Education Agency (MEA) regional offices. FAX contacts are preferable but if costs are prohibitive, mail contact is certainly acceptable. Please make sure all phone contacts are followed by a notification form to the MEA called. Ms. Michelle Rosinek, State Consultant, can serve as a resource person if you encounter any difficulties in trying to determine which regional office to contact. Her address is:

Michelle Rosinek, State Consultant
Migrant Education Program
State Department of Education
Twin Towers East - 1958
Atlanta, GA 30334-5080
TEL: 404-656-4995
FAX: 404-651-8079

Note: Van Hill can take all messages in her absence.

The following are attached to aid in determining which regional Migrant Education Agency (MEA) to contact:

1. The town/county index will aid in determining which county a town is in.

2. The MEA map will indicate within which MEA a county is located.

3. Addresses and phone number of each of the regional MEAs are provided.
